

Name _____ Period _____

5.2 Fighting the Great War (pages 356-361)

A New Kind of War

Why did Schlieffen Plan fail?

1.
2.

How was the Western front a stalemate?

- Trench Warfare (on the _____ front)
 - Trenches:
 - No man's land:
- Verdune:
- Somme:

Modern Military Technology

Casualties on _____ front due to modern weapons, especially _____ and _____.

Poison gas: First used by _____, then large scale by _____ 1916 _____ first introduced _____ to break stalemate, but _____

Zeppelins: _____

German _____ that tremendously damaged the Allies (Nickname: U-Boat)

Other European Fronts

Tannenberg: Russia was _____ equipped to fight.

_____ was another battleground.

Allies had _____ treaty with _____ to give them

_____ ruled lands

Global Conflict

Japan joined the _____ in WWI

Why did Japan join?

Turks joined _____ in 1914 and cut off _____ supply through _____.

Ottoman Empire Joins WWI

Allies sent _____, _____, _____, to open straight at Battle of _____. Who won? _____

Ottoman _____ territory to Arabs led by _____.

Deportation and Mass Murder

Armenians lived under _____ and _____ rule and were _____ (religion). Armenians were _____ in _____ majority Ottoman Empire.

< 1.5 million killed and fled Turkey because Marches campaign>

What happened to European colonies during WWI?

