

Documents of Democracy and Key Principles (CSS 10.2.2)

Magna Carta 1215, England	English Bill of Rights 1689, England	American Declaration of Independence 1776, U.S.	Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen 1789, France	U.S. Bill of Rights 1791, U.S.
* Limited power of _____ * Laid the basis for _____ of the law- law should be _____ * Prohibited the _____ from taking _____ or _____ without consent of a _____	* Guaranteed free _____ and frequent meetings of _____ * Forbade excessive _____ and cruel _____ * Gave people the right to _____ to the king or queen in _____ * Established _____ government—laws made by a _____ that acts for the _____	* States that all men are _____ and have the right to _____, _____, and the _____ of _____; these are _____ rights- rights that government _____ * Governments get their power from the _____ of the _____—the idea of _____	* States that "men are _____ and remain _____ and equal in _____" * Purpose of _____ is to protect "_____ " rights, including "liberty, _____, security, and resistance to _____" * Guaranteed freedom of _____ and freedom of _____	* Guaranteed freedom of _____, freedom of religion, and freedom of the _____ * Guaranteed _____ of law, including protection from unfair _____ * Guaranteed trial by _____; protected people from "_____ and unusual _____"